The Grease Monkey Burger Shop and Social Club to open in Historic Downtown Arlington.

Restaurant group to bring a unique concept aimed to service the Downtown Business Community, North and Central Arlington Residents and Families, UT-Arlington Students, Faculty and Staff, and the North Arlington Medical Community.

Arlington Texas, March 9th 2011: The Grease Monkey Burger Shop and Social Club will bring to the Downtown Arlington Revitalization Project a destination designed to provide something for everyone. The restaurant, scheduled to open for business Summer 2011, will offer a hamburger-focused menu providing kicked up specialty burgers, build your own burgers and blasted with marinade chicken sandwiches, soups, salads, Rockin' homemade fries and creative appetizer options. The menu will also include vegetarian and buffalo burgers for the health conscious patron. There will be live entertainment on Friday and Saturday evenings as well as state of the art audio-visual technology for the ultimate game watching experience. The open garage door and large patio concept will bring to Downtown Arlington "the Austin experience" of comfort, creativity and relaxation.

The Grease Monkey Burger Shop team is proud to be a part of the Downtown Arlington Revitalization Project and the UT-Arlington "College Town" vision. The restaurant site located in the Vandergriff Town Center provides the opportunity to be a part of a significant change in the downtown culture. Each member of the restaurant group team has a special connection to the city of Arlington and has pooled their interests, talent and enthusiasm to open a restaurant that will enhance the experience of each and every visitor.
